The Painted Post Police Department had a total 261 Calls for Service. The PPPD handled two counterfeit currency cases in April, 2017. In both incidents the suspects attempted to pass counterfeit $100.00 and $50.00 bills at the Village Mini Mart. In both incidents the suspects were arrested and remanded to the County Jail. The US Secret Service verified that the bills were in fact counterfeit. The PPPD also made an arrest on numerous Larceny from Cars arrest. A local resident was identified as a suspect in the ongoing investigation. The stolen property was recovered by PPPD officers. A total seventeen (17) larcenies from cars cases were closed by arrest. Much of the stolen property has been returned to its rightful owners. Lastly the PPPD made an arrest in a Criminal Impersonation investigation where a NYS Parolee had used a false name on an internet dating site and entered into a relationship with a Village Resident. When the Parolee's actual identity was determined by the Village resident. The PPPD assisted in having the Parolee removed from the victim resident. The continuing investigation revealed the Parolee was in violation of his Parole. NYS Parole arrested the suspect on a Parole violation warrant. This Parolee/ Suspect is also the prime suspect in the disappearance and murder of his former live in girlfriend in the State of Florida. It was through a coordinated investigation between the PPPD, NYS Parole, NYSP, the Steuben County District Attorney's Office, and the Salinas County Sheriff's Office in Florida that his dangerous convicted Felon was arrested, and was prevented from causing any further harm to his victim and her family.

Chief Mullen did take a few minutes before his report to recognize four officers for their outstanding performance.

Robert Hoffman and Brennan Hardy of the Painted Post Police Department, Steuben County Sheriff Deputy Stephen Ellison and NYS Trooper Kenneth Ruland.
